Stan,

Am planning to come to N.Y.
for Stack's sale this weekend. Please throw that 1835 $$2\frac{1}{2}$ in your pocket.
Don't have any good $$20$'s at present, but might dig something up. I trust
I will see you then.

Dear Julian: Enclosed is check for the 1856-S $20 gold. I did have a nicer one about two years ago. I am returning the 1862 $5 gold and the 1861 $20 gold. For some reason they don't appeal to me, but when I get married and you still have them, you can try to sell them to my wife. You should succeed as you seem to know more about her than I do. (If I bought the 1862 from you Very best wishes, life would be too easy)

Stan,

Happy Day after Columbus Day! Enclosed find 1872 $20 P.M. I would suggest $300. - as a price, but since we're dealing at a price over Catalog, $225 would also be fair. Do you have any use for the very rare 1874-S $10 in EF @ $110. -?

Please make reservations for me for Fri 10/23 and Sat 10/24, double bed at Salisbury Hotel.

If you feel that a lower price on the 1868 $ would sell it, try it.

See you later,

Julian

Stan,

Thanks very much for sending me the coins. I am keeping 1886 @ 200.- I am very much interested in super grade coins, but am not interested in coins of only "gem" grade at a lesser price. The reason for this is your gem is only AU, HA, HA...! I will be in Phila Thurs.

We have to discuss Kreisberg's sale yet, so remind me. Thanks again

Regards,
Julian
